

Thursday, October 21 is Purple Thursday.
Wear purple shirts, masks, ties, and more.

Put on purple to identify yourself as an advocate for survivors and raise awareness about the issue. It's a great socially distanced way for work, faith, and community groups to show support.

Buildings shine purple lights, ice cream shops give free purple sprinkles, restaurants make purple drinks. Raising awareness is important to ending the cycle of violence.

Be loud. Your voice is powerful!
